River and Trails Active Living Committee

By Elizabeth Tollefson on Monday, June 15, 2015

Through the GreenStep Cities program, there will be a reconvening of the River and Trails Active Living Committee, a part of Crookston InMotion. The River and Trails Active Living Committee is a group interested in the hiking, biking, and skiing trails in and around Crookston. The meeting will be held on Tuesday, June 23 at noon in the back room at RBJ's. All are welcome to attend.

Discussion topics will include a review of the master plan, the Crookston biking program, cross country skiing and hiking trails, and river access points. For information, contact DeAndra O'Connell in the Center for Sustainability at the University of Minnesota Crookston at 218-281-8128.

The University of Minnesota Crookston now delivers 31 bachelor's degree programs, 22 minors, and 36 concentrations on campus as well as 14 degree programs entirely online. These degrees are offered in the areas of agriculture and natural resources; business; liberal arts and education; and math, science and technology. With an enrollment of 1,800 undergraduates from more than 20 countries and 40 states, the Crookston campus offers a supportive, close-knit atmosphere that leads to a prestigious University of Minnesota degree.
